Route 6 Mishap Injures Three

Three persons were injured and two of them hospitalized following a one-car accident on Route 6 east of Sheffield Friday at 6:45 p.m.

Admitted to Kane Community Hospital for observation were Terry E. Menteer, 18, RD2, Kane, and Marie A. Wagner, 15, 609 Water st., Warren. They suffered abrasions and contusions. Hospital officials said their condition was good.

They were passengers in a car driven by Victor M. Luce, 19, 101 Egypt Hollow rd. Luce was driving east on the highway, state police said, and attempted to pass a line of cars ahead. The car ahead also pulled out and Luce swerved and the car went off the north berm and rolled over twice, they said.

Luce was treated at the hospital and released.

GOP Reminder

All interested Republicans are reminded of the 8 p.m. meeting Monday at the Northwest Savings and Loan Hospitality Room. Sponsored by the Warren County Council of Republican Women, the session will feature a report from the county commissioners, a question-answer style; brief talks by the GOP candidates to the General Assembly; and an account of the Con Con Judiciary proposal by the district attorney. Refreshments will be served.

Fred Cusimano Heads Drive For Democrats

The chairman of the Warren County Democratic Committee, Tom Conway, has appointed a Warren man to head the area's Democratic Party membership drive. He is Fred Cusimano of 1413 Pennsylvania ave. W.

Cusimano will act as chairman of the recently formed "Warren County Democratic Club," a non-profit party entity established in recent weeks by the county committee. The primary purpose of the newly formed club is to provide the party with a means for raising funds for precinct workers, party headquarters and election campaigns, as well as funds to help defray year-round party expenses, Cusimano said Friday.

He will begin soliciting members to the club immediately, assisted by co-chairman Nick Marinoble of Mason's Mobile City.

"There is no set membership fee for the club. We prefer to have every registered Democrat, and those Republicans who feel they would like to lend financial and voting assistance to good Democrats, to belong. Therefore, we will accept any amount as a person's annual membership dues," Cusimano said. "We would like to have as many persons as possible contribute a minimum of $2.00. However, we certainly won't turn down any contributions that are less than that amount, nor will we turn away any sincere Democrat or Republican who wants to belong to the Democratic Club but finds it impossible to make a contribution."

Persons interested in joining the club can contact Cusimano at 723-2427 or by writing the "Warren County Democratic Club," c/o Tom Conway, Pennsylvania Bank Building, Warren, Pa. 16365.

Plans also call for a direct mail and door-to-door solicitation of members in the coming weeks.

Grand Valley Fire Dept. Ready to Go

Warren County's newest fire fighting force, the Grand Valley Fire Department, is now in service and ready to fight fires, chief Charles Hollabaugh reports.

Telephones to receive incoming fire calls only have been installed in four strategic places in the community. They are located at Neeley's Service Station, Chief Hollabaugh's home, the Grand Valley Barbershop and at the home of Frank Stephens. The number for Grand Valley area residents to call in the event of a fire is 436-3161.

The department has already responded to two fire calls. They assisted Garland volunteers in fighting a grass fire March 29 and extinguished a blaze in Selkirk April 2.

The Grand Valley department will meet today at 7 p.m. in the Grand Valley Barbershop. On the agenda are the setting of dates for formal training for all firemen, a progress report on acquisition of a fire house and proper disbursement and utilization of funds contributed so far toward the truck, fire house and new fire fighting equipment. All members are urged to attend. The meeting is open to all interested in learning more about the plans of the department.

Kane Girl Attacked Savagely by Raccoon

KANE—Nancy Ford, 13, of 528 Elk ave., was savagely attacked by a pet raccoon which had escaped from its cage about 8 p.m. Thursday. The animal sprang at her as she walked along Maple st., with her friend Vicki Bundy, also 13.

Nancy was bitten four times on the arm and twice on the leg. Unable to free herself, even with Vicki's aid, Nancy fell to the ground with the animal clutching her arm.

Vicki ran to the nearby home of her uncle, James Bundy, who picked up a heavy stick and clubbed the raccoon to death. The raccoon was the pet of a local young man who recently joined the armed services and had left it caged at his parent's home.

LBJ Signs Bill to Keep Phone, Auto Excise Taxes Same

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed Friday a stopgap excise tax extension bill keeping the rates at 7 per cent on automobiles and 10 per cent on local telephone service.

The bill gives Congress more time to work on a spending cut and tax increase package. Disagreement on this issue had held up extension of the excise taxes which technically dropped April 1 to 2 per cent on automobiles and 1 per cent on telephone service.

Johnson also signed a bill appropriating $28 million for unemployment compensation for federal employees and returning Vietnam veterans.

Paul Harvey Commentator To Speak In Jamestown

JAMESTOWN — Nationally known radio commentator and newspaper columnist Paul Harvey will appear in Jamestown May 13 under sponsorship of the Kiwanis Club.

The talk will be given at 8:15 p.m. in Merton P. Corwin Auditorium on East Second st. Proceeds of the program will go to benefit the work of the Kiwanis Boys and Girls Work Committee.

Harvey, who has been connected with some phase of radio since the age of 15, served with the Air Force during World War II. He presently flies his own plane in going from his Chicago home to lecture locations in all parts of the United States and Canada.

Harvey has received a number of awards for his efforts on behalf of freedom and the "American Way of Life." He is in demand as a lecturer and has, on several occasions, given commencement addresses at colleges and high schools.

Tickets for the May 13 talk are now on sale. They may be purchased at $3 each at Beatty Dixon Candy Shops in Jamestown and Warren and at Wymer's Party Shop and The Humidor in Jamestown.

Ivan Smith Jr. Russell Marine Viet Casualty

Marine Pfc. Ivan Smith Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith, 205 Main st., Russell, is in Philadelphia Navy Hospital, where he is facing surgery after being wounded March 7 in Vietnam.

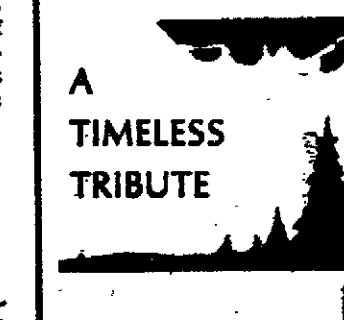

Pfc. Smith, his mother said, as a result of combat action, has lost the sight of his right eye, and suffered shrapnel wounds of the stomach.

The Warren serviceman, in Ward 2-C, would like to hear from friends and fellow citizens.

Expecting in June

"Puddin'", the English bulldog featured in last Saturday's Allegheny section may have some competition as "Mother of the Year." Mrs. William Schoures, RD 1, Russell, also has an English bulldog named "Penelope," a rare type pugget bull. She is expecting pups in June.

WANTS PROGRAMS FOR QUICK ACTION

Shafer Tours Pitt Ghetto

PITTSBURGH (AP) — City and state officials began Friday to try to eliminate the causes of violence that left Pittsburgh's Negro neighborhoods scarred by firebombings, window smashings and looting.

Mayor Joseph M. Barr formed a task force to probe the violence and come up with ideas to prevent it from happening again.

Gov. Shafer toured the Negro Hill District in an unmarked car, then announced a "new look" state employment service to meet changing problems. He said it will begin with a new employment office in a partly burned-out and looted shoe store in the Hill.

The governor ordered the remaining 570 National Guard troops out of the city by nightfall Friday. The other 3,900 troops left Thursday night and during the day Friday.

They had been in Pittsburgh since last Sunday when city police asked for help to quell the trouble in ghettos.

Shafer said state police reinforcements will remain in Pittsburgh until Saturday afternoon.

Barr said the 10-man task force of city officials will study the recent disorders and take another look at city, state and federal programs designed to help people living in ghettos.

He said he wants specific recommendations for an action program with short-range goals.

"... it is much too late to make any long, drawn-out studies, probes and investigations," Barr said. "We have had too much talk and soul-searching and, apparently, not enough action of the right kind."

"The State Employment Service," he said, "was founded in depression times. It did a great job of solving depression problems. It now needs a new look at itself, possibly new structuring to meet very different problems from those of the 1930s.

"I want the new look to come into being in Pittsburgh with the residents of the Hill. We will carry out similar reviews in other parts of Pittsburgh and the state in due course."

At another news conference, Byrd Brown, president of the Pittsburgh Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, announced a march from the Hill to downtown Pittsburgh Monday.

He said the march will end at the U.S. Steel building because U.S. Steel is "the heart of white racism in this community."

U.S. Steel had no immediate comment.

Pittsburgh Riots' Cost to State Is Said near $1 Million

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The state budget secretary said Friday that violence that broke out in Pittsburgh the past week will cost the state nearly $1 million.

Arthur F. Sampson said that pay and support of 4,485 National Guardsmen brought into the city would approach $800,000 a day for some days and the cost of 150 extra state policemen will run $4,000 a day.

"We think the costs to the state will approach a million without any difficulty," he said. Sampson said the state will make up the money by trimming items from the state budget.

The City of Pittsburgh estimates the violence will cost it $300,000 in pay for policemen who worked an average of 44 hours overtime.

Recover Stolen Army Explosives

LEBANON, Pa. (AP) — State Police and Lebanon County authorities reported Friday that explosive materials taken from U. S. Army warehouses at the Edward Martin Military reservation have been recovered.

Deputy State Police Commissioner Joseph Dussia said 11 juveniles were taken into custody and later released in the care of their parents.

Lebanon County Dist. Atty. Alvin B. Lewis said, on the basis of questioning the youths, authorities were convinced that the thefts had "absolutely no connection with the racial tensions of the past few days." They youths were white, he said.

Lewis added that the youths, who were not identified because of their ages, would be handled through the juvenile court system.

Dussia and Lewis said the items recovered included: some "highly dangerous" plastic explosives; 11 one-pound blocks of TNT; a small amount of 50 caliber ammunition; six cans of rifle ammunition containing 250 rounds per can, blasting caps and fuses.

An officer at the Jonestown substation said the youths ranged in age from 15 to 17.

Lewis said authorities believed all the missing items had been recovered, so far as authorities knew.

Originally, it was believed that entry into the warehouses at the military reservation occurred last Monday and Tuesday night, during the height of tensions created with the assassination last week of Dr. Martin Luther King.

Lewis said, however, that the materials had been taken over a period of time extending back to the beginning of April.

The youths were taken into custody by Sgt. Stanley Pijar and Troopers Paul Miller and Raymond Stima of the Jonestown substation, Dussia said.

The FBI, State Police and military authorities at the reservation, formerly known as Ligonier, had participated in the investigation.

Col. Bernie D. Johnson, commander of the U. S. Army garrison at the Gap, said the matter was now in the hands of the State Police and Lebanon County authorities. He said the federal government did not intend to prosecute.

Catholic Charities Goals Surpassed In Local Campaigns

The Friday, April 12, issue of the Lake Shore Visitor, official newspaper of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Erie, reports that 108 of the 126 parishes in the Erie Diocese surpassed their goals in the highly successful First Annual Catholic Charities Campaign which closed officially Friday, April 5.

All Warren County parishes exceeded their goals.

St. Anthony and St. Clara parishes, in Sheffield and Clarion, raised jointly $15,008 or 300 per cent of their goal.

Holy Redeemer, Warren, raised $23,042; 181 per cent of their goal.

St. Joseph, Warren, raised $27,235; 165 per cent of their goal.

St. Luke, Youngsville, raised $5,343; 140 per cent of their goal.

St. John, Tidioute, raised $3,600; 140 per cent of their goal.

Campaign headquarters at St. Mark's Seminary reported total pledges of $1,710,262, representing $460,262 over the goal of $1,250,000. The total reached 136.8 per cent.

Discuss Float For Horse Club

At its recent meeting at Russell Methodist Church, the Russell 4-H Horse and Pony Club discussed the possibility of entering a float in the 1968 Warren Jaycees Fourth of July parade.

Brenda Phillips, vice president, conducted the meeting, held March 19.

The members voted to change the name of the club to Russell Horse Club, instead of its previous name, Warren Horse Club.

On April 2, the Russell Horse club met for a slide program on safety around horses.

Refreshments were served by Joy and Debbie Briggs.

Next meeting of Russell Horse Club is scheduled for April 16 in the Church basement.

Broderick, Casey Speak on ConCon At Bradford Mon.

Lt. Gov. Raymond Broderick and former state senator Robert P. Casey will hold a half-hour news conference at Bradford Airport Monday on state Constitutional Convention proposals.

Their 1:10 p.m. appearance will be sponsored by the Committee for Five Yes Votes, Paul Zdinak, a committee volunteer, said Friday.

Broderick and Casey were, respectively, president and first vice president of the Constitutional Convention. They will be in one of three planes touring the state Monday to promote support for the proposals.

In a second plane will be Gov. Raymond Shafer and convention delegate Frank Orban, while former governors William Scranton and George Leader will be traveling in a third plane. Each group will tour the state separately.

The dignitaries are scheduled to visit 20 Pennsylvania cities Monday.

Three Youths Held

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. — Three youths charged with the theft of more than $1,400 worth of merchandise from Warren Radio, Inc., were ordered held in Chautauque County jail after their appearance in city court.

Charged with an April 5 burglary are Carl Calimeri, 18; Daniel L. Vincent, 20, both of Jamestown and Robert C. Carlson, 19, of Frewsburg, N. Y.

Passover Festival Celebrates Freedom

Dr. Kurt L. Metzger, rabbi of Temple Beth-El in Bradford issues the following statement on the occasion of Passover:

The festival of Passover that began at sunset Friday has a compelling significance of Israel's birthday as a people. It recalls to the Jew not only the gift of liberty to his people after a servitude of four centuries' duration but also enjoins upon him the championship of liberty in behalf of others.

During the period of Passover only unleavened (matzes) and nothing leavened may be consumed according to the biblical injunction of Leviticus, chapter 23:5-6. The first and last days are holy convocations. An additional prayer for dew is incorporated into the ritual of the first day.

The holiday is inaugurated by a family celebration—the Seder which means Order—during which the Hagadah—the

County Youth Charged with Second Theft

A second charge has been filed against a 16-year-old Warren County youth by State Police Trooper Mark Golomb.

The juvenile was arrested and charged with the burglary Tuesday of a camp owned by Steve Manross of Hyde Park, Pa. and located three miles north of Tidioute.

Golomb stated the youth was the same charged earlier this week for larceny of a motor vehicle after he was arrested by Towndland township police near Butler, Pa. in a stolen car owned by a Ligonier, Pa. woman who also has a camp near Tidioute.

The camp, police said, was burglarized at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday and the car taken one half hour later.

The youth has been referred to juvenile authorities.

A 1961 Chevrolet station wagon stolen from Warren Collision parking lot, RD 1, Clarion, between Sunday night and Monday morning was recovered by Trooper Golomb about 4:30 p. m. Thursday at the Beatty school parking lot.

It is still not known who was responsible for the theft and those with any knowledge concerning the incident are asked to contact Golomb at the local substation, 723-8880.

High Winds Blow

High winds are apt to blow up a mystery along with everything else. Residents of Stanton Hill on Thursday found six balloons caught in a tree. The balloons carried the statement—Ursuline College Welcomes CTS. There's at least a three-way choice as from whence they came—Ursuline College in Cleveland, Ohio, Louisville, Ky. or Quebec, Ontario, Canada. All three are small, women's colleges.

Helium is, next to hydrogen, the lightest gas known.

Pacifist Woman Marine Sentenced

WASHINGTON (AP) — A pert Colorado girl who joined the Marines instead of the Peace Corps but who now opposes all wars and military service was ordered punished Friday for disobeying orders of her superiors.

A summary court-martial, finding her guilty of "wilful disobedience" despite her plea that she was following her conscience, sentenced Mary Elizabeth Burns of Grand Junction, Colo., to 45 days restriction to barracks, a fine of $20 and reduction in rank from corporal to private.

The findings and the sentence by the one-man court are subject to automatic review by the colonel commanding the Marine Headquarters Battalion and then by the review board of the Navy Judge Advocate General.

As Miss Burns spent 23 days in modified restriction to her base in Arlington, Va., the sentence will be reduced by that period of days. Higher authority may confirm the lower court's sentence but cannot increase the punishment.

Marine Corps headquarters already has under consideration Pvt. Burns' application for an administrative discharge based upon conscientious objections which she first formally expressed in mid-March.

At that time she refused to wear her military uniform—she, appeared in court Friday in a yellow sweater and a pale skirt to signify her objection—and also declined to start a leadership course for noncommissioned officers prescribed for her by her superiors.

The Marine legal officer who tried her, serving as judge, jury, prosecutor and defender, was assisted in his latter duties by two lawyers of the woman Marine's own choosing, a Navy lawyer lieutenant and a civilian counsel.

The trial officer, Marine Capt. James Jones, refused to accept her plea of being technically guilty but morally right in disobeying her superiors.

Testifying in her own behalf, the 21-year-old Marine said she owes her first allegiance to the dictates of her conscience and to "a supreme being." Friends and a Catholic priest testified to her longstanding religious devoutness.

Judge Blasts Hippie Arrests

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A federal judge ruled Friday that mass arrests of hippies in fashionable Rittenhouse Square last summer were "totally unjustified."

U. S. Dist. Court Judge John P. Fullam ordered all records of the arrests expunged and all pictures and negatives of the defendants be either destroyed or given to them.

Policemen arrested 27 hippies, many long-haired and bearded, in the park last June 17. They made further arrests July 5. All were later freed.

"It is not a crime to be a hippie," said Fullam. "There is no evidence the persons arrested were guilty of any improper conduct, nor did the police have any grounds for belief or even suspicion that those arrested were guilty of any crime."

Three of those arrested later filed suit in U. S. District Court to establish their right to congregate in the park. The judge upheld their right in his ruling Friday.

Parent-Student Meeting Set For Youngsville

All parents and students of the present eighth grade are urged to attend a parent-student meeting Wednesday, April 17, in the Youngsville High School auditorium starting at 7:30 p. m.

After a brief session in the auditorium, parents will be divided into three groups and instructed as to the evening's procedure.

Felix Matthews, YHS principal, will use rooms 216-218 with the topic "Curriculum and Extra Curricular Activities and Pupil's Personal Responsibilities."

Mrs. Jeannette Connely, guidance counselor, will use the cafeteria and her topic will be "Education and Career Planning."

G. Reid Pierce, home-school visitor, will use the auditorium and will use the topic "Home Cooperation and Understanding of Problems."

Topics are adjusted to the problems of the age group and the potential freshman student.

The present eighth grade parents and students should feel their attendance is imperative and make a serious effort to be present.

Youngstown Said Now Back to Normal

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — National Guardsmen in Youngstown to quell racial disorders were gradually being withdrawn Friday as police reported everything "back to normal."

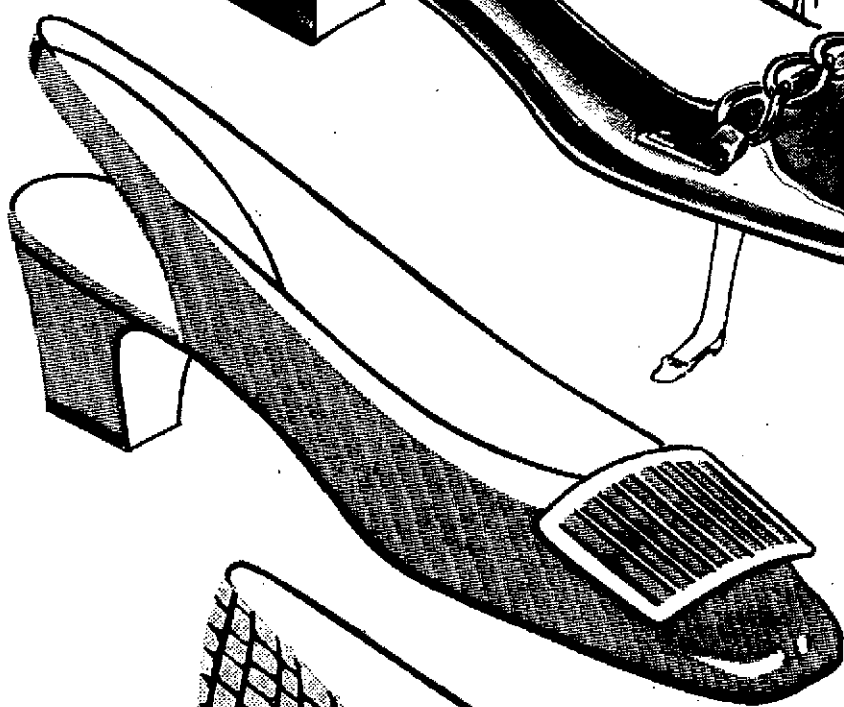

About 600 Guardsmen were ordered in Monday night to patrol five blocks of the city where disturbances broke out.

Mayor Anthony B. Flack said the number of Guardsmen on duty would be reduced gradually and there would be no mass withdrawal. He said the number of troop reductions would not be disclosed.

William Bloom Wins Scandia Mountain Prize

William Bloom, of 12 Lansing st., North Warren, has been named "King of the Mountain" by the Scandia Mountains Association, having won the special award offered at the recent Kiwanis Sports and Outdoor Show.

The winner and his family are entitled to a day of swimming at Wade's Woods heated swimming pool; golfing at Blueberry Golf Course; a weekend of camping at Red Oaks Hills; riding at the P.F. Ranch; admission to Scandia Animal Park; tickets to the play of their choice at Flowright Playhouse; a flight over Kinzua Dam with Harold Beach of Scandia Air Park and lunch or dinner at the Wigwam.

Bloom was one of 2,000 contest entries.

Kennedy's Aides Say He's Underdog

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Top political aides to Sen. Robert F. Kennedy portrayed him as the underdog in his May 7 presidential primary contest with the state's favorite son candidate, Gov. Roger D. Branigin.

The high command of the New York Democrat's campaign organization converged on Indianapolis to plot the tactics of the Kennedy contest against Branigin and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn.

Among them here was Lawrence F. O'Brien, who resigned Wednesday as postmaster general and is expected to play a role for Robert Kennedy similar to his master strategist's role in the successful 1960 campaign of John F. Kennedy.

Other Kennedy advisers seemed genuinely convinced in private talks that Kennedy is running behind Branigin.

It is not uncommon, however, for candidates to depict themselves as underdogs and thus heighten the impact of a possible victory.

One Kennedy adviser, who asked that his name not be used, said Branigin holds an enormous advantage over Kennedy because of his patronage power and "an exceptionally well-financed state Democratic organization."

Indiana will send 63 delegates to the Democratic national convention in August, Kennedy has been trying to convince Indiana citizens that theirs is a key primary, that they may be choosing the next President, and that they shouldn't waste their votes on a favorite son when they have two live presidential prospects to choose between.

'67 Shorn Wool Payments At Rate of 65.8 Per Cent.

Charles Camp, chairman Warren County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reports shorn wool payments for the 1967 marketing year will be made at the rate of 65.8 per cent of dollar returns each grower received from sale of shorn wool during 1967.

Camp says Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman explains these payments to producers for wool marketed in 1967 will save many sheep raisers from financial ruin and enable them to continue in business.

Payments are estimated to total nearly $70 million—highest in ten years, and more than double the amount of payments made last year on 1966 marketings.

Payment rate for wool is determined as the percentage necessary to bring the national average wool price of 39.8 cents per pound received by growers during 1967 up to previously announced incentive level of 66 cents per pound under the national wool program.

By comparison payments on 1966 marketings were made at the rate of 24.8 per cent.

Chairman Camp explains each wool payment is determined by multiplying the grower's dollar return from sale of his wool (less marketing charges) by the payment rate of 65.8 per cent. Producers thus receive an incentive payment of $6.80 for every $100 received from the sale of shorn wool. Percentage method of payment encourages growers to improve quality and marketing of their wool. Grower who gets best possible price for his wool also gets higher incentive payment.

Payment rate on unshorn lambs, sold or slaughtered during 1967 marketing year, is $1.05 a hundredweight. This compares with 1966 rate of 92 cents a hundredweight.

Camp says Warren County ASCS office will within a few days begin making 1967 program payments to producers who have filed their applications.

SCRIMMAGING FOR EASTER EGGS

Memorial Field was the scene yesterday of the Sylvania Electric Products Inc. annual Easter egg hunt. The children aided by their parents (Sylvania employees) line up for the mad

Polish Paper Charges Jews With Informing

WARSAW (AP) — High-ranking Polish Jews who emigrated to Israel after the end of the Stalin era were charged Friday with giving secret military information to Israeli authorities for transmission to the United States.

The state-controlled newspaper, Zycie Warszawy, continuing attacks on "Zionists" remaining in Poland, listed 22 names of former army officers and high party and government officials who left the country after 1956 and entered the armed forces or government of Israel.

Among them were former officers of the Polish general staff, intelligence service, military academies and security corps. The newspaper quoted a Polish publication in London as saying: "Israel supplies the U.S. intelligence with information from emigrants behind the Iron Curtain."

As a result, Zycie Warszawy suggested that leaving Poland was not so simple for a Jew as Communist party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka had made it out to be.

Speaking last month after anti-government student riots, blamed in large part on Jews, Gomulka said: "We are ready today to issue emigration passports to all who consider Israel their fatherland."

Pope Bears Cross In Torchlit March

By DAVID MAZZARELLA

Associated Press Writer
ROME (AP) — Pope Paul VI carried a light wooden cross Friday night in a doleful Good Friday procession marking Christ's agony and death, for which the pontiff said all mankind is "corresponsible."

Addressing tens of thousands of pilgrims amid Rome's pagan ruins, Pope Paul urged Roman Catholics on this "day of bitterness" for Catholic believers, as St. Ambrose called it.

Curtailling his participation in the ceremony as a consequence of his prostate operation last fall, the 70-year-old Pope did not walk the entire way with the procession from the ancient Colosseum to the Temple of Venus.

The procession made its way to 14 prayer stations on a route simulating Christ's journey to Calvary.

For the last four stations, he took the 6 1/2 ft. high cross from an aisle and carried it himself.

The stations marked Christ's nailing to the cross, His death, His removal from the cross and His entombment.

His eyes darkly ringed from the fatigue of this Holy Week, the pontiff put aside the cross and walked in the chill night air to microphones. His back was to the huge apex of the Temple of Venus and he faced the floodlit, multi-arched Colosseum.

His voice was raspy and feeble as he spoke of his emotion over the "cruel and humiliating crucifixion."

But it picked up power and animation as he came to his point: "We are coresponsible for this sacrifice. Why? Because Jesus died for us. He died for our cause. We are morally tied to those who crucified Him. It is for our sins that the Lord died."

He said Christ "is the mirror of our weaknesses, our sins."

The torchlit Way of the Cross ceremony is one of the most dramatic and arduous in the Pope's schedule. It climaxes observances on this "day of bitterness" for Catholic believers, as St. Ambrose called it.

As a prelate and two laymen walked solemnly from the Colosseum, consecrated to the blood of Christian martyrs, the pontiff knelt before a simple altar holding four candles in the ruins of the temple.

Akeley Club Meeting Is Attended by 15

By DORIS SPICER

The Friendly Neighbor Club met Wednesday evening, April 3, at the home of Mrs. Donald Cable with 15 present. The highlight of the evening was the modeling of Easter bonnets made by each member. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Kenneth Ekey for the prettiest and Mrs. Francis Spicer for the funniest.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Herbert Erikson, it was decided to visit friends at the Rouse Home on May 1 at 1:30 p.m. Anyone attending may contribute toward ice cream or cookies.

Several readings were offered during the social hour. "My Get Up and Go Has Got Up and Went," from the Good Old Days magazine, read by Ethel Swanson, "It's Spring" from Readers' Digest, by Jeanette Warner, "The Story of the Dogwood" from Ideals by Edith Johnson, "Do Something Today" from Ideals by Doris Spicer and "What the Choir Sang About the New Bonnet," a poem by Morrison read by Doris Spicer.

To conclude the evening the hostess served a lunch which included an Easter Bonnet cake. The next meeting will be held May 1 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Clarence Carlson Jr.

Each attending is asked to make a May basket. It was suggested that May baskets be made to take to the Rouse Home in the afternoon also. Coming events for May 1: Friendly Neighbor Club to meet at Rouse Home at 1:30 p.m. May 1. Bring a May basket. Regular meeting will be at 8 p.m. May 1 with Mrs. Clarence Carlson Jr. Bring a May basket to this meeting also.

Grand Valley Area News and Events

By JOYCE L. BROWN

There was a gathering at the home of Elmer Van Gulder to congratulate him on his 80th birthday on Sunday night. The party was given by his niece Mrs. Marie Brothers and the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. John Moroski; Mr. and Mrs. Valmore Hillier and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brothers and of course the guest of honor, Mr. Van Gulder.

Mrs. Adda Marshall was hostess at a home products party Tuesday afternoon.

Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Savitz were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Savitz and children and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Wiler and three sons of Pittsfield.

There was a catechism class held by Rev. Fleckenstein of St. John's Church at Tidoute at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Savitz on Wednesday evening.

Also present were Sisters Mary Kathleen and Mary Helen from Warren Catholic Center.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Gary and Cristene of Saeger-town visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wittig on Saturday. They also called on Louis Brown before going home. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Brown and Robert Brown of Warren were Tuesday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown.

No word has been received as to when Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garber expect to return from their winter vacation in Florida.

The Girl Scouts—Juniors and Brownies—had an Eastern Egg hunt Tuesday afternoon at their regular meeting.

Sanford Ladies Aid had their meeting at the home of Mrs. Ilia Moroski as Mrs. Phoebe Allen has accepted work cooking at Rouse Hospital and so was unable to have aid.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Marshall Douglas and Barbara of Tylersburg and George Becker of Lucinda Rd., were Saturday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall.

Robert Brown spent Saturday at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown at Spartansburg.

Work is started on the church basement at Sanford and is being done by Mr. James Marshall of Tidoute, Mr. Robert Marshall and some volunteer help from men of the community.

Sports Ramblings

ATTENTION BOATERS

Reports from the boating school being conducted by the Pennsylvania Fish Commission and the local Power Squadron indicate that 103 registered at the first session last Monday and about 20 others were present for the instruction without signing up for the course.

Two more sessions of the class will be held on Mondays—April 15 and 22. Each session is from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the Warren Area High School cafeteria.

Certificates will be awarded those who attend all three sessions.

A THOUGHT

A thought provoking bumper sticker seen around the area reads as follows: "If guns are outlawed, only outlaws will have guns."

SPORTS CAR RALLY

A letter from Mrs. Russell Miller of Duke Center tells us that on Saturday, April 27, at 8 a.m. the Allegheny Valley Sports Car Association will present its eighth southern tier tour, sponsored by Quaker State Oil Refining Corp. Jim Place of Bradford is the rally-master of this annual AVSCA event, which will be a straight - forward nine - hour TSD rally through the southern tier of New York.

The Holiday Inn of Bradford (on Davis street) is the scene of the start of the approximately 250-mile tour. Registration will begin there at 6 p.m. the Friday night before. The event will also end there with the awarding of trophies.

Entry is open to everyone and to any type of car. The entry fee is $18 per car before April 22, which will include the luncheon and the victory banquet for driver and navigator. Entries must be accompanied by a check payable to AVSCA and should be mailed to Mrs. Miller, secretary at PO Box 37, Duke Center, Pa. 16729.

ON THE ALLEYS

The winter bowling season is nearing the finish line, with the final rounds being rolled off before the smaller summer leagues take over.

At the Warren Elks Club it has been announced, that their bowling banquet has definitely been set for Thursday, May 9. Tickets for this "very special" event are available in the grill room of the club.

HEY MINISKIRTERS

Entry blanks for the 1968 Allegheny Mountain Association's AAU Junior Olympic girls' track qualifiers are available. The qualifiers will be May 18. Girls from Warren, Cameron, Clarion, Clearfield, Elk, Erie, Forest, Jefferson and McKean counties may obtain entry blanks by writing to Miss Margie Holland, Bradford High School, Bradford, Pa. Entries close May 11. The age bracket includes girls age nine through 17.

MISCELLANY

Ron Mohny, a Warren Area High School graduate, received a varsity letter at Allegheny College's annual Block A banquet earlier this month. A freshman, Ron wrestled at 123 for the Gators and compiled a 1-6 record. However, Coach Bernie Sabol figures he will bolster the lightweight corps next season. Ron is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mohny, 18 Hertzels st.

Bill Trypus of Meadville is the veteran discus thrower on the Edinboro State College Highlander cinder team this season.

FISHERMEN NOTE

If any of you anglers miss the opening day of Pennsylvania's trout season today, you can make it up when the Pennsylvania Fish Commission's fish stocking trucks roll again Monday morning—that is, if you play it that way.

Keen Buss, chief of the Division of Fisheries, says there will be no pause in the 1968 stocking program with a high pressure and country stream areas first on the list, to be followed by the more remote lake and stream sections scheduled over the four to six week period. You will be alerted they say.

Less Shortess of the Fish Commission tells us the streams in the northwest section of the state are normal and clear. Wardens report all roads, including secondary roads in good condition. Best opening day baits include worms and spinners and minnows. Best wet fly recommended is the Brown Quill. Remember, we didn't say it. But lots of luck, anyway.

Lakers In Position to Win NBA Western Title Today

The Los Angeles Lakers have a chance to lock up the Western Division playoffs of the National Basketball Association today. Leading 3-0 in the best-of-7 series, the Lakers move into San Francisco with an opportunity to knock out the Warriors in four straight.

"One more to go," shouted Jerry West after scoring 40 points in Thursday night's 128-124 victory. "If we win Saturday night, we'll get a chance for a rest before playing the Eastern champion." The Warriors, hanging on the brink of elimination, also are hurting physically. Joe Ellis is considered doubtful because of the sprained ankle he suffered in Thursday's game. Jeff Mullins is troubled by a dislocated toe that forced him to be overcautious.

Philadelphia, leading the Boston Celtics, 2-1, in their Eastern title series, resumes its chase of another league championship Sunday afternoon in Boston, a

Player and January Take Masters Lead

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Bursts of birdies sent South Africa's Gary Player and Texas' Don January into the second round lead tied at 139 Friday while the collapse of the great Arnold Palmer and the blow-up of Bill Casper left the Masters Golf Tournament in a state of dazed shock.

Palmer, four-time winner, all-time leader in earnings and a jet-flying millionaire, skyrocketed to an unbelievable 79 for a 151 score that missed the half-way cut.

"I don't know where I was, I certainly wasn't on the golf course," a discouraged Palmer said afterward.

He had four bogeys, a double bogey and a triple bogey. He hit a ball in the water twice on the 15th hole. His tee shot hit the water on the short 12th. He three-putted two greens.

Casper, the placid Mormon whose 68 led the opening round, had almost as many miseries. He shot a 75 for 143, still in contention but in an unhappy mood.

"I was sick out there," Casper, two-time U.S. Open champion who has never won the Masters in 10 attempts, said. "I felt awful. I had no feel. I had no touch. I was glad to finish."

Player, who quit the rich American tour to grow timber and breed horses and cows on a huge ranch in Johannesburg, momentarily at least rebounded all putting touch in firing a five-under-par 67.

He had six birdies and climaxed his round with a snaking 25-footer on the final hole.

January, a lean Dallas professional of 3 years who won the PGA championship in 1967, chipped in from off the green on two holes—eagling the 520-yard 15th from 100 feet and knocking in a birdie from 25 feet at the 11th.

Player and January were left with a tenuous one-stroke lead over favorite Jack Nicklaus, darkhorse Bob Goalby and rallying Frank Beard, all three tied at 140, with Tommy Aaron, the Georgian who has never won a tour event, another shot back at 141.

It's still, in the track parlance, a horse race.

Beard, flashing a blast hot putter, fired a seven-under-par 65, the best round of the tournament and just a stroke off the all-time record. He had birdie putts of up to 30 feet and no bogeys.

Big Jack, playing with England's young Tony Jacklin, chipped in from 60 feet for one birdie and sank a 30-foot putt for another in firing a 71.

"I am happy, but I should be at least three or four strokes better," Nicklaus said.

Goalby, the handsome tour regular who looks like a football halfback, shot a 70, with a 15-foot birdie putt at the third and a 30-footer at the 10th.

While a swarming gallery of 40,000, which poured over the 6,980-yard, par 72 Augusta National course, suffered with Palmer and Casper, they were given a tremendous thrill by a plucky Australian named Bruce Devlin.

Devlin, a one-time plumber by trade, was soaring toward an imposing lead over the field when he came face to face with the treacherous, par 411th hole. There he dumped his second into the water and whiffed his fourth swing for a horrendous 8. Devlin rallied with two birdies for a 73 and a score of 142.

Devlin was tied at 142 with Roberto de Vicenzo of Argentina, the reigning British Open champion, 69-73; England's Tony Jacklin, 69-73; long hitting Ray Floyd, 71-71, and Bert Yancey, 71-71.

Casper fell back among a cluster tied at 143. "I think I still have a chance," Casper said. "If I can only whip this illness, I have."

Astros Beat Phillies 5-2 For Third Victory

HOUSTON (AP) — Rusty Staub's two-run double keyed a four-run fifth inning uprising that carried the Houston Astros past Philadelphia 5-2 Friday night for their third victory in as many starts this season.

Left-hander Denny Lemaster gave up two runs in the first inning, then stopped the Phillies with relief help from John Buzhardt in the eighth.

Rookie Hector Torres started the fifth inning rally with a single. Lemaster sacrificed and Ron Davis' single scored Torres. Phils starter Woody Fryman then walked Joe Morgan and Jim Wynn, filling the bases, before Staub sent Houston in front 3-2 with a double down the left field line.

Dick Farrell replaced Fryman and issued two more walks, forcing in the fourth run.

The Astros padded their lead in the sixth on Torres' third single, Lemaster's sacrifice bunt and a double by Davis.

The Phils loaded the bases with none out in the first on two walks around a double by Cookie Rojas, who had four of the Phillies' 11 hits, Rich Allen's infield hit delivered one run and another scored on rookie Larry Hise's grounder before Lemaster worked out of trouble.

5 LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE
IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF WARREN COUNTY,
PENNSYLVANIA

No. 80 February Term, 1968

ROBERT A. JENKINS and DOROTHY L. JENKINS, his wife
Plaintiffs vs.
WALLACE NELSON
RUTH HULICK
LENORA JOHNSON
DAISY HOUGHTON
HEIRS OF EDITH CHIDO,
Deceased

Being all Heirs and Assigns of
JOSEPHINE SCHATZLE,
Deceased
Defendants

To: EDITH CHIDO, her heirs and assigns,
TAKE NOTICE that on April
2, 1968, ROBERT A. JENKINS and DOROTHY L. JENKINS, his wife, presented their Complaint in the Court of Common Pleas of Warren County averring that they were, on March 27, 1968, the owners of a certain parcel of land situate in the Ninth Ward of the Borough of Warren, Pennsylvania, known and designated as Lot Number 128 on a map or plat made by W. O. Mason, Surveyor, and recorded in the Recorder's office of Warren County in Deed Book 136, page 797, said lot having a frontage on Malvina Street of 550 feet and extending back therefrom 200 feet.

The title of the Plaintiffs rests upon a tax sale of said premises in 1946 for the unpaid real estate taxes of 1944 and this action is brought for the purpose of confirming said title in conformity with Pennsylvania
Rules of Civil Procedure, rules
1061 to 1070, inclusive.

WHEREUPON said court ordered that notice of said facts be served by the Plaintiff on said WALLACE NELSON, RUTH HULICK, LENORA JOHNSON, and DAISY HOUGHTON, Heirs of Edith Chido, Deceased, and all of the known heirs or assigns of JOSEPHINE SCHATZ-LE, Deceased, by advertisement requiring them to answer said Complaint within twenty days from April 27, 1968.

ON THE COVER

Highlight of Warren County oil history is the famed "mystery well" at Cherry Grove. Old 646 upset the oil markets of the world when in 1882 its fabulous production surprised the speculators. From then on oil scouts were employed to report on the potential of all wildcat operations. Yet, in all, this famous strike is but a single facet of the many events which contributed to our historical past. See page four.

SOCIAL

Wanderings

by Marion Honhart

ABOUT SIXTY TOTS CAN BE SEEN TODAY.... providing it doesn't rain having a wonderful time hunting miniature chocolate Easter eggs hidden all over Beaty Field. The hunt, sponsored by the Pre-School Mothers Club for their pre-school age children, will get underway at 11 a.m. All arrangements were made by Mrs. Robert Winterburn, Mrs. Bruce Shattuck and Mrs. Gary Sittler. One of the other nice things about this is that the moms have just about as much fun as their small fry!

ALSO, YOU MIGHT LIKE TO SEE the Easter Tree at the James Hoskinson residence, 315 Jackson avenue, which I am told haven't had a chance to see it myself yet is causing quite a bit of favorable and admiring comment by those who have.

A GARAGE AND RUMMAGE SALE will be sponsored by the Altar-Rosary Society of Holy Redeemer Church and the Catholic Daughters of America on Thursday and Friday, April 18th and 19th, in Holy Redeemer Rectory garage on Russell street. Store hours will be observed. Donations may be left at the garage on Wednesday, the 17th. For articles to be picked up call 723-5576. The proceeds of the sale will be sent to the Sisters of Mercy Order, care of Sister M. Patricia, to be used in their works of charity.

THE ANNUAL CANADIAN KESWICK CONFERENCE RALLY and reunion will be held in the Zion Covenant Church, 520 W. Fairmount avenue, Jamestown, on Friday, April 26th, at 7:45 p.m. Mrs. Carl L. Holmberg of Jamestown writes that the speaker will be Dr. Arthur B. Lee, pastor of Tremont Temple Baptist Church in Boston, Mass., with soloist Sam Carser of Toronto. Gordon Bish, business manager of the conference, will preside and, color slides of Keswick will be shown. Refreshments and a social hour will complete the program.

MINIATURES: At the Wednesday, April 17th, meeting of the Warren Kiwanis Club William Clinger Jr., attorney, will bring members up to date on the Constitution Convention and help prepare the way for a knowledgeable vote on proposals.

Returning to their homes in Youngsville after spending the winter in Florida, on Thursday, were Mrs. Robert Mead, who was in Fort Pierce, and Mrs. Nina Hamilton, who was located in Palm Beach.

Grange News

Brokenstraw Grange held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. Robert Jameson, master, presided. Plans for the annual Pancake Supper were completed; it is to be held in the Brokenstraw Grange Hall on April 17, Wednesday, from 5 p. m. until all are served. Amendments to the constitution were read and correspondence from State Grange Master John Scott explaining positions of the state organization, and stressing importance of getting out to vote.

In observance of Youth Month, Warren County Youth Grangers were guests and presented the program. Those taking part were Archie Brittain, Jean Hollabaugh, Bob Hollabaugh, Denny Durnell, Hope Nelson, Virginia Roberts. At the close an altar circle was formed and Ida Grace Larsen sang "May The Good Lord Bless and Keep You."

The next regular meeting, on April 23, will be with men of the grange putting on a fashion show during the Literary Hour. There will also be practice for officers seating drill.

Warren County Pomona Grange No. 10 will hold its regular meeting at New London Grange Hall on May 11, with a tureen dinner at noon, and the New London Grangers serving the evening meal.

First prize dresses from all subordinate granges will be judged at 10 a. m. and winners will be sent on to be judged at the State level.

Plans will be presented for a building to serve meals at the Warren County Fair August 13 to 17.

The Pomona degree team will practice on May 4 at 7:30 p. m. in the New London Grange Hall.

Five Christian Education Conferences In This Area

A series of five district conferences on Christian Education for Pre-School Children will be sponsored in the following areas of Western Pennsylvania: Mt. Lebanon, Clarion, Erie, Blairsville, and Uniontown. They will be sponsored from Sunday, April 21, through Thursday, April 25, by the board of education of the Methodist Western Pennsylvania Conference.

Miss Helen L. Stealey, associate professor of Christian education at West Virginia Wesleyan College, will be the guest speaker. She will talk on building a solid basis for Christian faith during the nursery and kindergarten years and the church's function with young children. Miss Stealey was formerly director of children's work for the Board of Education of the Methodist West Virginia Conference.

The Pittsburgh District conference will start at 3 p. m. Sunday, April 21, in Mt. Lebanon Church with Mrs. Herbert Costolo presiding. The Clarion District meeting will be at 7:30 p. m., Monday, April 22, in Trinity Methodist Church, Oil City, with Mrs. Carl Buterbaugh presiding.

The Erie District meeting will be held in First Methodist Church, Erie, at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, April 23, Mrs. John Buckley presiding. Blairsville District conference will be held

Nuptial Vows Are Pledged

Joy Marie Sheldon and David Arthur Sandeen exchanged wedding vows in a double ring service held recently in Sacred Heart Church, Erie. The Rev. Father Joseph Grode, pastor of the church, was the celebrant of the Nuptial Mass which was attended by one hundred and fifty guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orris W. Sheldon of R. D. 4, Greenville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Sandeen of 118 Yankee Bush road, Warren.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Florence Messmer at the organ and Edward Hinkley, soloist. Ornamenting the altar were two vases of white mums.

Escorted on the arm of her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white velvet with scoop neckline, long sleeves terminating in wedding points, and detachable cathedral train which fell from the shoulders. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls. Her bouffant, shoulder length veil was trimmed with Alencon lace and secured by a pearl crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white miniature carnations and cymbidium orchids.

The maid of honor was Miss Beverly Sandeen of Warren, sister of the groom, in a long two-tone pink velvet and crepe costume with detachable sleeveless coat. She wore a matching pink velvet cluster headdress and carried a bouquet of pink variegated miniature carnations with velvet streamers.

Orris Sheldon, brother of the bride, was the best man; ushers were Ernest J. Hoag Jr. of Warren, and Raymond G. Drexler, cousin of the bride, of Erie.

The mother of the bride wore a blue lace ensemble with navy accessories, and the mother of the groom chose a costume of beige lace with matching accessories. Both had orchid corsages. The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Sheldon of Erie, and the grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Cardamone of

MR. AND MRS. DAVID ARTHUR SANDEEN

Warren, both were remembered with corsages of carnations.

A dinner at Scheffner's, Erie, immediately following the wedding was attended by the one hundred and fifty guests. Aides were Miss Mary Ann Giannelli, Susan Erickson of Warren, a cousin of the groom, managed the guest book.

For traveling to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and then to San Diego, California, the new Mrs. Sandeen wore a white lace a-line dress with avocado green accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Sandeen are now at their home in San Diego.

The bride is a graduate of St. Michael's High School in Greenville and Spencer School of Nursing in Meadville. She was on the nursing staff in the Pediatrics Department at St. Vincent's Hospital, Erie, prior to her marriage. The groom, a 1964 graduate of Warren Area High School, was employed at Dorcon Inc., Warren, before his enlistment in the United States Navy.

Pre-nuptial affairs were given by Miss Mary Ann Giannelli and Mrs. Raymond Drexler. The rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the groom at Serafini's in Erie.

Out of town guests attended the wedding from Greenville, Indiana, Painsville, Warren, Pa., and Buffalo, N. Y.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have been told I am critical, hard-headed, unsympathetic and a perfectionist. If you agree I will apologize in the front window of Macy's department store next Saturday at high noon.

I saw fit to criticize a sitter because she'd:

- (1) Dug huge chunks out of a ham which I had planned to serve my bridge club.
 - (2) Ate nearly one-third of a coconut custard pie which had not been cut into.
 - (3) Left a permanent ring on top of the TV when she set down a wet glass.
 - (4) Burned a small hole in an upholstered chair. (Cigarette, of course.)
 - (5) Talked on the phone for one hour and 20 minutes and made it impossible for me to reach the house.
- Comment, please-----SCARSDALE

DEAR SCARS: If you hire this girl to sit for you again you have holes in your head, Woman.
+ + +

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Zelda and I have been married for three years. She is a lively girl and has always had a lot more energy than I have.

About six months ago my brother Dick started to take Zelda to the movies, bowling and a few other places because I was too tired. Last week Dick, who is a salesman, asked Zelda if she wanted to go on the road with him for a few days. She asked me if it was O.K. and I said yes, so she went. They got back yesterday and Zelda said she had a groovy time. She wants to go again soon.

A guy at work told me I must be crazy to allow this. I think he had a dirty mind. I talked it all over with my mother and she said it was perfectly all right because Dick is a blood relative. Do you agree?-----QUESTIONS RAISED

DEAR Q.R.: Sure, Dick is a blood relative. But he's YOUR blood relative, not Zelda's, dummy. Put an end to this chumminess or you might wind up being your own brother-in-law. If Dick wants a female companion on his trips suggest that he find a nice single girl -- and marry her.
+ + +

DEAR ANN LANDERS: What would you do if you were 16 years old and your mother kept harping on how important it is to be a good girl and choose your friends carefully and have high standards and make the boys respect you and then you found out that SHE wasn't such a good girl when she was 16.

Her standards couldn't have been very high and she wasn't very careful about her choice of friends because she had a baby out of wedlock.

Would you obey her or would you laugh at her?--BUFFALO TEEN

DEAR BUFFALO TEEN: The choice is yours, but you know what sometimes happens to people who laugh when there is nothing funny. Someone usually drops a butterfly net over them.

Did it occur to you that your mother loves you enough so that she doesn't want you to go through the hell she experienced when she was your age? It may well be that HER mother didn't tell her anything and she had to pay an enormous price for her ignorance. If you disregard your mother's advice on the grounds that she is a poor example you are making a big mistake. She may be the BEST example after all.

Easter Party For PSGG Meeting

The April meeting of the Pre-School Guidance Group was held on Saturday, April 6, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in the form of an Easter party for children. Albert Fox entertained with original cartooning, and an Easter egg hunt followed with several children the happy finders of prize eggs.

Refreshments were served at a table appointed in an Easter theme by Mrs. John Berdine and the following committee: Mrs. Merle Rodencal, Mrs. Willis Yeagle, Mrs. Lynn Williams, Mrs. Richard White and Mrs. Boyd Smith.

Before the next meeting, which will be the annual May banquet, a nominating committee will meet to select officers for the coming year. The officers will be installed at the May banquet.

Special Note

EPWORTH AND STONEHAM CHURCHES

The Rev. Samuel C. Dunning will not preach the Sunrise Service, having been called out of town by the death of his father, William E. Dunning Sr., Beaver, Pa.

The Rev. Harold Knappenberger will preach regular Easter Sunday at the two churches.

The members of the Warren BPW club met Tuesday to make final preparations for the meeting of District One to be held in Warren at the First Presbyterian Church, Saturday April 20th.

Miss Jennie Vimmerstedt of Jamestown, N.Y., will be the guest speaker following the banquet scheduled for 6 p.m. in

Psychedelic Musicians Give Entertainment

A local group of musicians -- The "Psychedelic Society" whose members are Dan Pierce, John Gross, Matt Streich and Craig Rieder entertained the Youth Club of United Presbyterian Church of North Warren during the program portion of their meeting Wednesday.

Youth Club, now in the fourth week of its 8-week program, is providing an unparalleled vehicle for Christian Education during the week-day hours; spreading the experience over a several-hour span and including as fundamental features of Christian experience such activities as a fellowship dinner and recreation events much as is done in summer camp and conference programs.

Youth Club is not a substitute for or a replacement of standard programs of Christian Education such as church school, Youth Fellowship and Bible Study.

Since the staff is voluntary in Youth Club Programs, Inc., part-time service is essential by a large number of people to keep activities going. This enables parents to fulfill a portion of the basic vows required of them when they presented their children for Christian baptism. Helpers assisting the permanent staff members this week were the following: Mrs. Nelson Beck, Mrs. Kenneth Reynolds, Carl Brecht, David Clark, Mrs. Maurice Peace, Mrs. John Berkebile, Donald Rudolph, Mrs. Norman Cable, Mrs. Russell Scott, Floyd Bathurst, Mrs. Cecil Ash and the Misses Dolores Weber and Linda Rickert. Linda substituted in the recreation department for her father, S. J. Rickert.

Inadvertently omitted from the list of helpers April 3, were Mrs. Harvey Nelson, Mrs. Emory Mahan, Mrs. Howard Carlson, Mrs. John Weber and Mrs. Earl Gerard. For entertainment during the dinner hour program, Mr. Howard Fox of Russell, Pa. entertained with magic tricks.

New Slate Of Officers For PTU

A slate of officers for the 1968-69 term of office was presented at the Tuesday evening meeting of St. Joseph Parent Teachers Unit: President, George O'Dea; vice president, Michael Lindvay; secretary, Mrs. Joseph Guiffre; and treasurer, Mrs. August Juliano. Members who served on the nominating committee were: Mrs. Ted Wozneak, Mrs. William Hunter and Mrs. Darrell Harlan.

Formal installation of officers will take place at the May meeting.

Following the business meeting, a slide program on Vietnam was presented by Ronald Simonsen, M.D. Dr. Simonsen was stationed at a Special Forces camp in a small province in Vietnam near the Cambodian border.

Refreshments were served by mothers of First grade pupils, with Mrs. Peter Molinaro committee chairman.

BPW Plans District I Meeting for 20th

Fellowship Hall. Registration and coffee hour will be held from 2 to 3 p.m. in Memorial Parlors, followed by the business meeting.

Elected delegates to the meeting are: Eva Schmiedel, Betty Lyle and Bernice Dell; alternates, Evelyn Boyd, Florence Ott and Lucille Leafstrom. Members are reminded that

Communion Service Is Held By Grace Methodist WSCS

The Woman's Society of Christian Service at Grace Methodist Church had an attendance of 73 at their communion service. The program was arranged by Mrs. Robert Young and readers were, Mrs. Raymond Rapp, Mrs. Florence Anderson, and Mrs. Norman Johnson.

"Let Us Break Bread Together" was sung by Mrs. Raymond Morrison, Mrs. LeRoy Hammerbeck and Mrs. Frank Flood. Mrs. William Christenson Jr. accompanied by Mrs. Robert Young on the autoharp sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go". A trumpet solo, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth", was played by Deborah Dietch. Mrs. Gail Bimber, Mrs. Franklin Higgins and Mrs. Jack Blair served the communion. The closing prayer was given by Mrs. Mabel Adams.

Preceding the communion service a short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Raymond Rapp, in the Winger room. Announcements were made of the Bethel Park Conference to be held April 18, May 9 is the Kane District Conference at DuBois.

Mrs. Gerald Bishop, district Spiritual Life leader of the EUB Church, will be the speaker, May 1 is the 7th Annual Missionary Conference at the First Methodist Church in Corry. The School of Missions at Allegheny College in Meadville is July 14-19.

The annual election of officers was held and the following will serve for the 1968-1969 year: President -- Mrs. Raymond Rapp, vice president -- Mrs. John Huston, secretary -- Mrs. H. J. Samuelson, treasurer -- Mrs. John Hartley, christian social relations -- Mrs. Robert L. Anderson, publicity -- Mrs. Dorothy Duell, campus ministry -- Mrs. Edward Shield, membership -- Mrs. Mabel Adams.

Sponsler, program materials -- Mrs. Warren Carr, supply work -- Mrs. Robert Wheatall, vocational representative -- Mrs. Paul Volkman, local church activities -- Mrs. Arthur Cobb, circle co-ordinators -- Mrs. Walter Mather and Mrs. Earl Mohnkern.

Forest Service Woman's Club Has Program on Allegheny

The monthly meeting of the Forest Service Woman's Club was held April 9, at the Northwest Savings Bank. The program, which consisted of a very interesting selection of slides on the wildlife, recreation, and timber harvesting of the Allegheny National Forest was presented by Dallis Munter, a forester in the Lands division on the Allegheny.

Following the program, the business meeting was held. Those members recently completing the Defensive Driving course were presented with cards of completion. A description of the duties of new club officers was then followed by a discussion of a family picnic to be held June 9th, in lieu of the monthly meeting. The location, time, and other details will be decided upon at the next meeting, to be held May 14th, also at Northwest Savings Bank.

The program guest for this meeting will be Elaine Sabers, a beautician with the Casa Bella; she will demonstrate wigs and wiglets. A wiglet will be raffled off at the meeting. Any interested members who would like to act as models are requested to contact Mrs. Sabers.

At the close of the meeting a delicious desert was served by the Hostess Committee.

By HOWARD JARVIS

EASTER... a day of joy. The nature of any special day of the year is often expressed in the terms we most often associate with it

... and Easter Sunday has its own special words... like "Joyous" and "Happy Easter." The flowers and other symbols tell us much, too... and the Easter Lily, fresh and pure and white, suggests this time of hope and happiness.

Easter is a day of re-birth and the fulfillment of the promise of a new life. And like the fresh bloomed flowers of the season, we humans too blossom forth in all our best finery for the traditional Easter Parade. That new Easter outfit is more than an indulgence of milady's vanity. It is an expression of the joy we feel at this wonderful celebration, which comes so fittingly at the end of winter and the beginning of a new season.

We hope that we played a small part in giving your Easter outfit a fresh, clean look. We hope you'll come in often whenever you want your clothes to look their best for any special occasion. Meantime, we wish you and yours a Happy Easter!

Oil Played a Romantic Role in Local History

By DON NEAL

"The proposal to erect an historical marker and museum to commemorate Bradford's role in the development of the oil industry is an excellent one." So stated the opening paragraph of an editorial in the Bradford Era on October 3, 1967.

Which leads one to ask, "What did Bradford have in the way of early oil history that Warren County didn't have as much, or even more? Further, what have we ever tried to do about promoting the part we played over one hundred years ago in creating the history that has added much to the romance of the oil industry?"

Certainly not enough.

For outside of the fact that Col. Edwin Drake drilled the first commercially important oil well across the county line in Titusville, Warren County is in a position to match tit for tat almost any other featured event in the early days of oil. And in a few instances could head up the parade.

Warren County had the world's first flowing well at Tidioute. It also had the world's first dry hole there. And ghost town sites of the oil boom era dot the countryside of the county with places like Fagundus, Triumph, Wardwell, Garfield (Cherry Grove) and President being the best remembered.

It was in the white sand deposits of Warren County that the first strikes were made to open up extensive new fields outside the original "brown sands" territory. The famed "646" at Cherry Grove was the granddaddy of this development and it was from this fabulous

TYPICAL OPERATION

A typical oil operation of 1882 when the Cherry Grove (Garfield) field was having its heyday. It was operations such as

"mystery" well a veritable river of oil flowed to bring panic to all of the world's oil markets. Such disastrous panic that the practice of having scouts posted at promising wells from then on was started in the Cherry Grove field and the initial production of all strikes was wired to oil buyers in all parts of the world. In short, the oil history of Warren County is a fabulous one. So fabulous that it should constitute a featured part of our tourist promotion activity. Especially if Bradford is going to emphasize oil history on one this that made it possible for the hastily-built boom town to reach a population of well over 10,000.

side of us and Titusville on the other.

The Drake Museum at Titusville attracts thousands of tourists each year. In addition, the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters is currently acquiring land for the establishment of the 8,000-acre Oil Creek State Park which, when opened to the public, will create even more interest in the early history of oil. It's just possible that the thousands who will visit the Drake Museum and the new state park could be attracted to Warren County if a meaningful form of "oil history" entertainment could be offered.

But what is meaningful oil history entertainment?

James B. Stevenson, publisher of the Titusville Herald, has given the answer in the work he has done single handedly at the famed boom town, Pithole City. Jim has just about as many come to his "attraction" as visit the Drake Museum. These thousands like to wander the grass-grown streets once trod by the booted feet of prospectors and speculators and read the signs that tell of buildings and businesses long departed from the scene.

Stevenson's "hallowed" ground at Pithole City has a distinct advantage, for the fact that the tourist can stand on ground where history was once made is a meaningful experience. And yet the experience could be more meaningful if replicas of the famed buildings, their exteriors plastered with the crude handpainted signs that advertised everything from oil leases to imported liqueurs, could be viewed in all of their false-front splendor.

Which means, it seems, that a reconstructed oil boom town at any location within the boundaries of the early oil country, if not too distant from the impact area of the Drake Museum, the Oil Creek State Park, and Stevenson's Pithole City, could be developed into a very practical and profitable tourist attraction.

From a cost standpoint, a reconstructed oil boom town would compare favorably with the cost of producing the historical drama which is presently under consideration. Much of the construction, which would consist of woodwork in its crudest form, could be done by semi-skilled or volunteer labor and costuming those who could be enlisted to bring the town to life would present no more of a problem than a hometown centennial celebration. Some of the activities in the town could be leased to concessionaires.

A limited number of false-front buildings (a la Hollywood) could provide a start. Other buildings could be added as needed to the point where a booming oil boom town would be a tremendous tourist attraction.

Further than this, there are indications that because of the high regard Pennsylvania has for tourist attractions of this sort partial financing may be forthcoming from the state. Warren County has an established position in early oil country history—we should use it to our advantage.

BOOM TOWN

Business in the booming town was conducted as much in tents and shacks as in more substantial buildings because of the short duration of the strike. The boom which started in March with the strike at the famed 646 well had run its course by October.

CHERRY GROVE—1882

Garfield (Cherry Grove) as it appeared in a woodcut illustration in Harpers magazine in 1882. This town that extended for a mile between the Clarendon plank road and the Sheffield plank road had a population of 10,000 with many others living in the immediate vicinity.

Selected Viewing

Saturday, 8 p. m. —PENN-SYLVANIA MAGAZINE presents an Easter special. Members of the Religious Affairs Department at Penn State perform a sermon through modern dance interpretations and folk songs.

Sunday, 8 p. m. —PROFILE presents a look at the grown-up world "Through Youthful Eyes." Small children express their opinions on such complex subjects as politics, President Johnson, and the Vietnamese War.

Monday, 9 p. m. —NET JOURNAL asks: "Who in '68?" Students at Ohio University argue their presidential preferences in an open forum to measure the youth vote prior to the national election.

Tuesday, 9:30 p. m. —DON PASQUALE, performed by the Indiana University Opera Theater Company and Orchestra, is Donizetti's comic opera about the Don's opposition to his nephew's marriage.

Wednesday, 10 p. m. —THE FIRING LINE tonight presents host William F. Buckley, Jr., in a discussion with Theodore Bikel. Folk-singer Bikel, with his finger on the pulse of young America, talks of the discontent among today's students.

Thursday, 8 p. m. —MEN WHO TEACH is a new series featuring some of the nation's outstanding college professors. Today, viewers can visit with Harvard physics Professor Gerald Holton, who is seen both in the classroom and at home.

Friday, 7:30 p. m. —ART HISTORY 100 is a series of lectures designed to show great works of art in their historical and cultural context; to show that these artworks are shaped as much by their times as by their creator. Today, the subject is Frank Lloyd Wright's architectural masterpiece of home building, "Fallingwater."

Cheese, which is a good source of protein, is also a thrifty buy. Every bit of it can be used. If the end piece is hardened slightly, cut it off and grate it. Keep grated cheese in a covered container and use it as a topper on casseroles and vegetables.

Your Horoscope By Frances Drake

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1968

ARIES (March 21 to April 20)--Wisdom usually warns when not to speak or act but is often over-ruled. Better pay attention to it, and to the suggestions of the experienced now. Avoid excitability.

TAURUS (April 21 to May 21)--You can accomplish much if you are willing to give things a sincere try. Many dormant talents to awaken on this day, during this year.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)--If something annoys, deal with it calmly, but be firm, too. Just avoid abruptness in speech and action. Stellar blessings for the stalwart, unfailing Geminian who projects from BOTH the heart and head.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)--A special day for showing others how to enjoy and brighten life in its "little" ways. When you take time for such things as these, the benefits will be enduring.

LEO (July 24 to August 23)--A number of "ifs" and "buts" may be put before you, confusion could reign if you are not on guard. Do not let a misplaced word blow into a storm. Use your wits.

VIRGO (August 24 to September 23)--You can heighten and quicken your interests now, if you wish. Or you could sit back and catch your breath after a busy week. Do whatever is becoming and fitting--as Virgoans usually do.

LIBRA (September 24 to October 23)--Watch-and-wait is often a wise man's game. So long as you do not fall asleep on the watch! Assess carefully, take precautions against deception.

SCORPIO (October 24 to November 22)--If you delayed early in the week, you probably have a lot on your mind and on the docket. After normal tasks, work out a more constructive plan for accomplishment.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 to December 21)--Because you may not be doing the usual today, do not shift to the wildly or foolishly unusual. Listen well, take in others' ideas, then your own will come through more clearly.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20)--Better than ordinary advantages for you. Put first items FIRST, old advice too often forgotten. In all things, look below the surface. Don't be taken in by superficialities.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19)--Even a Saturday needs some system, if yours is free from regular work. The biggest fault will be time-wasting; next comes activity-scattering! Easy does it now.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20)--Gear yourself to a pace adequate for THIS DAY'S program and keep it there, neither slackening nor hurrying. Romance and friendship favored in the P.M.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with great physical virility, and mental vigor, too. You may often surprise yourself, as well as others, at the power thrust of which you are capable. A stalwart soul, you can also be adamant. In emergencies you act swiftly and accurately. Be certain all you espouse is sound. Shun gambling, but differentiate between it and worthwhile speculation. Don't throw caution to the winds--ever. Birthdate of: Thomas Jefferson, 3rd President, U.S.A.

How to Keep Well By Dr. T. R. Van Dellen

(c) 1968 By The Chicago Tribune

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

CORONARY ARTERY SURGERY

The coronary arteries bring blood to the heart. When the vessels harden, the supply is curtailed and complete blockage leads to a heart attack (coronary thrombosis). If the circulation to the muscle is severely reduced, and the individual is incapacitated by chest pain (angina) or repeated heart attacks, surgery may be needed.

Certain procedures will improve the coronary circulation in some victims. But before these are considered, tests are done to determine whether the sufferer will be helped by an operation. Injecting a dye into the coronary vessels makes them visible under X-ray. In this way the physician can estimate the extent of the arteriosclerosis along with impairment in the flow of blood through the various coronary arteries.

Surgery is most effective when there is a great demand for blood and the heart muscle is thick enough to hold one or two arterial grafts. The operation is not recommended when the heart muscle is too weak to pump enough blood to meet the body's needs. High blood pressure that cannot be lowered, poor general health, and a thin heart wall are contraindications to these procedures.

Most surgeons perform an operation that was devised by Dr. Arthur M. Vineberg. The basic feature of this technic is to free certain vessels from the inside of the chest wall and implant the open bleeding end into a tunnel made in the heart wall. The artery takes root bringing a new source of blood into the starving muscle.

Following surgery there is definite improvement in angina. X-ray studies taken several weeks later usually demonstrate improved circulation via a true connection between the coronary sinuses and the grafted vessels. In a group of 85 patients undergoing the operation, three died soon after; six succumbed at a later date. This is remarkable, considering their ages and the seriousness of their cardiac condition.

TOMORROW: Home Safety Check.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

FATIGUE AT 86 EXPLAINED

Q.D.P. writes: My 86-year-old father-in-law has a damaged heart and is short of breath. Although relatively well, he suffers from extreme tiredness most of the time. This is especially bothersome in the morning. He had cold feet until he started massaging the feet and legs for several minutes each day.

REPLY

His heart is working hard, and breathing fast uses up energy. This may explain his constant fatigue.

CLARENDON METHODIST CHURCH

'He is Risen'

BY REV. R. C. DOWLING

The body of Jesus was taken from the cross and laid in a tomb. The tomb was sealed with a large stone and guarded by soldiers. Friday night had rolled slowly by. Then came the seventh day, which was the Jewish Sabbath. A day that seemingly, to the followers of Jesus, would never come to an end. Through these hours, the disciples whose number had now been reduced to eleven, remained in hiding along with many of the women who had ministered to Jesus.

What were they going to do? Why had their leader been so violently snatched away from them? Would He return to them as He had promised? These and many other questions clouded their minds as they waited. Finally the shadows of twilight came upon them. Then came the seemingly endless hours of the night. Hours doubtlessly spent in sleepless anticipation and prayer. At last the eastern sky beyond the Mount of Olives showed forth its first indication of the dawning of the third day.

Mary Magdalene, one of Jesus' devout followers, made her way to the tomb. Great must have been her astonishment to find the stone rolled away and the soldiers gone. Mary looked into the tomb, and with tear dimmed eyes she saw an angel at the head, and at the foot of the place where Jesus had lain. The angels asked Mary, "Why weepest thou?" and she answered, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him." As she stood there with tears blinding her eyes—another figure confronted her. Thinking it to be the gardener, she said, "Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou has laid him, and I will take him away." Then a well loved voice spoke her name, "Mary", and she knew it was not the gardener. She recognized His voice—it was her Lord. The reason she did not recognize Him at first was because she was looking for a dead Christ. But He was not dead—He was very much alive. He had risen as He had promised. Now her tears of sadness turned to tears of Joy. Overjoyed by her discovery—Mary ran to tell the disciples of her experience at the tomb. And later that day her story was confirmed when the risen Lord appeared to His disciples. The risen Christ brought joy unspeakable.

Tomorrow is Easter Sunday and millions of people, all over the world, will gather in their respective places of worship to worship the risen Christ. There will be many who will still make the mistake that Mary made when she expected to find His body in the tomb. The Christ they know lived in Palestine almost 2000 years ago. The records of what He did and taught and suffered—moves and impresses them. But they continue to think of Jesus as One who was—rather than One who is. There are many others that will meet Him and know that He has spoken to them, just as Mary knew that He had spoken to her on that first Easter morning. There are still others who instead of meeting the risen Christ will try to keep Him sealed up within a tomb of creeds, or tied down in a tomb of philosophy and metaphysics, or clothed in theological statements, or imprisoned in stained glass windows rich in color but remote from life, or buried in books, or shut up in organizations.

Let each one of us join the multitudes on Easter Sunday and pay homage to the Ever-Living-Christ.

Youngsters' Crimes and Ages

For many years in the news media and most courts, including those in Warren County, the policy has been to withhold the identity of youngsters involved in "minor" crime and even those of a more serious nature provided they are under 18-years-of-age.

This suppression, however, is strictly policy and not a matter of law. Basically this is intended to give the juvenile offender a chance to mend his ways and keep his or her name clear so that in later and hopefully reformed years, his life won't be marred because of a youthful mistake.

With many first offenders, a period of probation may put an end to any desire to break the law--and this is the intent.

But what of the repeat offenders, who commit the same general type offense or crime over and over again and still receive only admonishment and additional probation even though they have apparently already set a pattern in behavior?

What of the repeat offenders who, upon apprehension, boast to their friends--"they won't do anything to me." What of the parents who, after their child has repeatedly been in trouble, blame police for "picking on my son or daughter," or "are out to get him."

According to the New Bethlehem Leader-Vindicator, there is a growing movement to change that policy--and many of the nation's leading jurists are leading in this change of philosophy.

The New Bethlehem paper states:

DREW PEARSON

Gun Control Legislation

WASHINGTON--The nation found out in 1963 that it would take more than the rifle slaying of a beloved President to override the powerful gun lobby on Capitol Hill. Now the shooting of a world-respected civil rights leader and the whine of sniper bullets across the country still have failed to budge gun-control legislation loose from the Congressional snares.

More moving than the memory of President John F. Kennedy and the Rev. Martin Luther King, apparently, has been the lobbying of the National Rifle Association which, for six years, has blocked every move on Capitol Hill to curb the indiscriminate sale of firearms.

Only a few hours before Dr. King was gunned down, the Senate Judiciary Committee again rejected legislation that would have banned the interstate mail-order sales of rifles, shotguns and hand guns.

An attempt to apply the ban to the sale of hand guns alone, however, ended in a 6-6 tie. This left the outcome up to the absentees, who voted the next day for the restrictions on pistols.

Meanwhile, the gun lobby has started an ugly whispering campaign that the gun control bill would prevent white people from buying weapons to defend their homes against Negro rioters. The truth is that the rioters, with rare exceptions, didn't attack the homes of their white neighbors.

Furthermore, the bill that President Johnson is pushing wouldn't interfere at all with the right of law-abiding citizens to purchase guns. It would prohibit the shipment of hand guns across state lines to anyone but legitimate dealers. In the case of rifles and shotguns, a private customer could make a purchase out of state provided he picked up the gun in person.

Some Western states have complained that ranchers are isolated from gun dealers and depend upon mail orders for their rifles. To accommodate them, the bill would permit the mail-order shipment of rifles into any state whose legislature wished to authorize it.

"Not only would identifying the young felon to the public expose the wrongdoer, but the policy might make parents more aware of their responsibilities. There is no effective substitute for home discipline, and there is no reason why the public should suffer criminal acts committed by juveniles who escape the public spotlight. If teenagers commit adult crimes, then they should be identified on the basis of their crimes instead of being shielded simply because of their age."

A first offense--everyone believes the juvenile deserves another chance before being marked as a criminal. A second offense--there may or may not be extenuating circumstances.

Judge Lester H. Loble, in his book, "Delinquency Can Be Stopped," said "Put the goods on the counter. Turn in the felon and turn on the light. Let the community he has brutalized behold him in all the splendor of his orangoutang strength, his chipmunk courage and his bird brain."

Judge Loble added: "I believe in looking right at the crime, the criminal and the victim. The do-gooders prefer to think the young criminal is a nice guy that got jostled into misjudgment through society's inattention to his ego needs. . .this I know--it works. They get caught and get publicized, they quit. I am not alone in my conviction. Nor any longer alone in my method."

Yes, many juveniles stop after that very first offense--but not all--yet they are still permitted to hide behind their so-called "tender years."

"First of all, Hubert, take off that silly mask...!"

Picking Up the Pieces

By midweek in Harrisburg, they were picking up the pieces. State liquor stores, except in Pittsburgh and Allegheny County, had been ordered back in business. Curfew on bars and taverns, except in the big cities, was left to the discretion of free enterprise and business was brisk in the outlying suburbs.

Governor Shafer had acted swiftly over the weekend, deploying 6,000 National Guardsmen and State Troopers into riot-prone areas.

By Monday, the Governor felt compelled to schedule a "walk" through Pittsburgh's ghettos--ala New York's Mayor Lindsay. Once on the scene, this compulsion for a personal inspection tour had receded. Back in Harrisburg, the Governor found his desk loaded with ideas and suggestions. Some of these, he pursued.

He personally announced the assignment of a Negro as the "first" chief inspector for General State Authority construction project in Johnstown.

The State Commissioner of Insurance was authorized to re-open the riot insurance debate with insurance companies--a process by which the State urges insurance companies not to over react to the civil tensions of the day by arbitrarily cancelling coverage on homes in riot-prone areas of the big cities.

In a colloquy which has been going on since last summer's riots, the Insurance Commissioner once again publicly promised the governor he would submit legislation to stabilize property insurance, by channeling State and Federal funds as a backup for unusual losses.

On the front steps of the Capitol on Tuesday, the Governor received a list of demands from local memorial marchers. These included the suggestion that the local newspaper publish a series of articles telling "the story of the inner city as it really is", an idea which nobody construed as an endorsement of the weekly column the governor recently started writing.

The governor also entertained a suggestion that Cheney State College, a predominantly Negro school down the road a piece from where Dr. Martin Luther King had been a seminary student, be named for the slain Civil Rights leader.

Totalling the out-of-pocket cost of the events of last weekend, the Governor's office reported that it cost $204,000 daily.

In Philadelphia, meanwhile, in an all-Negro race for nomination to a seat in the State House of Representatives, one of the candidates had regained his place on the ballot. To the consternation of the candidate, and the State Elections Bureau, somebody--getting him to sign for a phony telegram--had duped the candidate into putting his signature on a withdrawal paper.

The Legislature was in recess, but its leadership already was preparing its strategy for handling a docket loaded with Civil Rights proposals when it returns April 29.

As long ago as his State of the Commonwealth message, Governor Shafer has urged action on Civil Rights. This time around, he just might get it, if all the sweet talk the last few days means anything.

Happenings Years Ago

Trout anglers in the Warren district watched their elaborately laid opening day plans dissolve in the rain that drizzled over the area today.

Dr. Joseph Sugerman, president of the board of trustees of the Warren County Unit American Cancer Society, told the Times-Mirror this afternoon that this year's quota for Warren borough and county has been set by the state organization at $3,793.

Matthew Hosie, assistant principal at Warren High School, submitted his resignation in preparation to accepting the principalship of the Junior-Senior High School in North East.

At 5 a. m. hundreds of fishermen invaded streams in and around Warren County as trout season, 1958 style, opened. Game wardens now have the authority to arrest fishermen who throw away garbage for others to pick up.

The bill would also crack down on the 106,000 licensed dealers who now merely need to cough up a $1 fee to get a federal license.

The effect of the President's proposals would be to restrict the sale of guns to transients, juveniles and law breakers. Yet the bill has never progressed beyond the subcommittees, except for the hand-gun provision which the full Senate Judiciary Committee finally accepted.

In case the public clamor for gun controls should grow too loud, the Rifle Association has been ready all the while with a weak bill which would merely require affidavits from purchasers attesting that they are not juveniles or ex-convicts. The gun dealers would have no responsibility to verify whether the affidavits were true.

Of course, the gun lobby would prefer no legislation at all. But it has prepared the standby measure, which has been introduced by Sen. Roman Hruska, R-Neb., in the Senate and by Reps. Ed Biester, R-Pa., and Tom Railsback, R-Ill., in the House.

The first gun control legislation was offered in 1962 by Sen. Tom Dodd, D-Conn., whose Senate Juvenile Delinquency Subcommittee had uncovered an alarming traffic in mail-order guns among children.

Dodd, however, has had a disturbing, documented habit of consorting with the people he is investigating, then permitting the investigations to peter out. After he began investigating the insurance industry, for example, he sought loans from the insurance companies for business acquaintances. He obtained at least one million-dollar loan for builder Manlio Liccione, who paid the Senator a percentage for his intervention. Dodd also stopped paying his insurance premiums and wangled a job for his son Jeremy from the Aetna Life Insurance Company.

Again, during his investigation of violence on TV, he accepted personal gifts and campaign contributions from officials of the NBC and Metromedia networks. Both networks were spared the embarrassment of hearings.
